Day 02: SHILLONG – DAVID SCOTT TRAIL – SHILLONG (Meghalaya)

After breakfast we proceed to Mawphlang. And then go for trek at David Scott trail till Lad Mawphlang (Near Cherrapunjee)

David Scott Trail: An old trekking route and one of the most popular trekking routes in Meghalaya, David Scott Trail Shillong has been named after David Scott, a British office. The officer discovered this route in the first half of 1800s in the form of a mule track for travelling from Assam to Bangladesh. Earlier this route spread in over 100 km and used to take around 5 days to get covered, on-foot.

Noon: Packed lunch is advisable during trek.

The present trail route is separated into smaller trekking routes and the trail between Mawphlang and Lad Mawphlang, is the most famous one. This route covers the lovely terrain of Eastern Khasi Hills and now the route in David Scott Trail expands up to 16 km and can be covered in 4 ½ hrs. The whole trek is blessed with mesmerizing natural wonders such as cascading waterfalls, crystal clear streams gushing down from mountains, typical Khasi villages, scenic valleys, forests groves and expansive meadows.

Later drive to Shillong. At Shillong visit Archary ground at 3:30 p.m (Sunday closed), Don Bosco Museum (Sunday Closed & Govt. holidays). Overnight.
